1. January Meeting – Annual Topics.

Each year our club meets in January to elect officers and discuss topics for the year. In even years, endorsement of candidates and election results dominate the annual calendar. In odd years, like 2021, we have more meetings available for topics. One member has already sent in topics, including George Floyd Resolution Donations, Anti-Racist Training for ECDC Members, Double-Mind Syndrome for women in Politics. The Executive Board is recommending the February meeting be used to discuss parameters for the donations called for in the George Floyd Resolution. If you have topics you would like the Club to address, please send them to Greg Lyman at gblyman@comcast.net. Topics might include resolutions and planks for the California Democratic Party or pushing legislation and policies around single payer health care and Green New Deal.

2. Assembly District 15 Delegate Elections

Election season isn't over yet! We have one more very important election just around the corner! In January, the California Democratic Party will be electing party delegates. Most notably, each assembly district will be electing 14 community members who will represent the district in the party. El Cerrito is of course nestled right in the middle of Assembly District 15. In November, Buffy Wicks was successful in her bid for re-election as our Assembly Member. Now is the hard work of choosing the 7 delegates who will support her office.

Assembly District 15 is a huge district that extends from Oakland, across Berkeley, up to the city of Hercules. The district covers every race, ethnicity and socio-economic community imaginable. There are 7 spots for Self-Identified Women and 7 spots for those Other Than Self-Identified Women. The goal is to represent the various community members that live within our district. Two of our very own ECDC members are running for AD-15 delegates. Former El Cerrito City Councilmember Rochelle Pardue-Okimoto and ECDC Board Member Carolyn Wysinger. Both members understand the importance of having inclusive & representative leadership at all levels. Former Councilmember Pardue-Okimoto says, "While many believe in or aspire to be great leaders, real change comes from the bottom up, not the top down. It is with the collective voice that we press our leaders to do the right thing, to be brave and to truly represent the people. I believe this sort of grass roots activism happens at the delegate level in the Democratic Party. This is why I believe serving as a delegate enables the delegate to be a force of change."

For this 14-person race, Candidates Pardue-Okimoto and Wysinger have joined a strong slate of community leaders, union members and elected/appointed officials to form the Progressive Labor Slate. This slate encompasses the grand diverse community that is AD-15. Not at all a monolith, the slate represents many different voices with different opinions unified under a mission to champion progressive issues such as Black Lives Matter, Housing, Reproductive and Gender Justice and Ending Mass Incarceration. Asked her thoughts on the diversity of the slate Wysinger said, "I am always guided by a principal of intersectionality. As Kimberle Crenshaw stated, 'in order to address our most pressing policy issues Intersectionality must be embraced not just as a buzz word but as a practice' Our slate includes Black, POC and LGBT folks. We truly encompass the diversity of this district. With all of our voices at the table we will be able to make decisions that support us all."

The slate was organized and official endorsed by Our Revolution. The slate has also been endorsed by Contra Costa Labor Council, Assembly Member Buffy Wicks and Senator Nancy Skinner. We would love to have the support of ECDC. AD-15 delegations are usually very Alameda County Berkeley heavy. It would be great to have 2 of our district delegates from right here in our club! Here is the full slate:

Self-Identified Women:

Carolyn Wysinger
 Rochelle Pardue-Okimoto
 Alexandria Rodriguez
 Dyana Delfin Polk

 Zac Unger
 Devin Murphy
 Dan Kalb

3. Program – Election Recap with Igor Tregub

Igor provided a post-election analysis. Following is a summary of his comments and those of the Club.

- Election had the highest turnout since 1908 – 67 percent.
- Biden captured the suburbs and urban areas.
- Successful strategies included reaching out to on-the-fence votes in Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Georgia and other states, and convincing them to support Biden, which gave us the 10-20k vote margins in those states.
- Biden, however, discouraged knocking door-to-door, but in some places losses were razor-thin.
- Biden won 7 million more popular votes than Trump; it was the complexity of the Electoral College that drew out the election.
- Democrats lost seats in the House.
- With a narrow House majority and the Senate remaining Republican, “it’s going to be tough”.
- Rather than flipping many states from Republicans to Democratic, Democrats lost, putting Republicans in charge of redistricting and gerrymandering.
- Florida remains firmly Republican.
- Bay Area Democrats were characterized by Republicans as out-of-touch with those suffering economically during the pandemic.
- Not clear what Democrats stand for, other than being anti-Trump. “Missed opportunities” and missed messages.
- Republicans are the party of the working class; how to get Democrats back to “representing beer rather than chardonnay”? “Deficit of trust” with blue collar workers.
- Democratic Party takes many voters and voting groups in the party “for granted”.
- Beware the “cookie cutter Democrat” across the country; must respect everyone in the party. Stop criticizing moderate Democrats.
- Pushing single payer health care turns off many voters, Champagne said.
- “We (Democrats) allow others to paint the narrative of who we are,” Champagne said.
- Gabriel Quinto spoke on importance of creating a bench for new talent. Champagne agreed, calling out local officials who have been in office for a long time but do not mentor.
- Cheryl and Champagne observed defensiveness among Democrats when Blacks and others speak out. The Democratic Party’s “big tent” metaphor doesn’t work if others aren’t listening and progress isn’t made.

- Irene Tait said “I think that what I have notice in the last year... has been a lot of defensiveness and a lot of feeling that when we talk about these issues that it is an attack. And it is not. And I think that it is a hard thing not to listen to that shame reaction in yourself. But I think it is important, and I think we need to be better than we are currently being. And we need to elevate the conversation and listen to one another.”
- Champagne agreed, adding “this is the reason that some of us don’t necessarily want to participate because when we give you our opinion from our lense, from our life experience, people want to jump up and get defensive like we are attacking them. No, we are attacking the problem, period.”
- Prop 15 and 16 lost – misleading ads hurt.
- Igor thanked everyone. “I learned a hell of a lot from those who spoke up.”

6. Proposed By Law Changes

Periodically the Club updates our By Laws. They were last changed in October 2018 to meet DPCCC requirements. Changes under consideration at this time include:

- A. changing the date after which members join and they are automatically joined for the next calendar year from September 1 to August 1
- B. defining member meeting
- C. expressly allowing electronic mail of newsletter
- D. changing the notification requirement from ten (10) days to three (3) days
- E. defining our meeting minute process and what we do with any club recordings
- F. removing endorsement text that is redundant with our Standing Rules

A mark-up of the bylaws follows this article. We intend to discuss and possibly adopt these by law changes at the January member meeting.
