2. Preview of the February 23, 2021 Program

February is Black History Month! To celebrate we are happy to have Contra Costa District Attorney Diana Becton join us! DA Becton is the first woman and first African-American to be elected District Attorney of Contra Costa County since the office was established in 1850. She has been noted around the nation as one of the most Progressive District Attorneys in the country. Her restorative lens on crime and how to prevent it has been a catalyst for criminal justice reform across our county. However, it has not gone without criticism. Join us as DA Becton gives updates on some of the policies from her office, dismantling racism and what it means to build the bench as we move towards 2022.

District Attorney Diana Becton: Biography

Contra Costa County District Attorney Diana Becton has spent most of her professional career as a judge, lawyer, and manager. On September 17, 2017, she was sworn in as the 25th District Attorney for the Contra Costa County District Attorney's Office. In June 2018 District Attorney Becton was elected to a full term in office. District Attorney Becton served for 22 years as a judge in Contra Costa County, where she was elected as Presiding Judge.

Her top priority is keeping the streets of Contra Costa County safe from dangerous and violent criminals. District Attorney Becton is committed to safeguarding our communities from crimes that threaten our health, well-being, and livelihood, protecting our seniors from financial abuse, and for working on positive outcomes for our youth.

District Attorney Becton is the Immediate Past President of the National Association of Women Judges, the nation's leading voice for women in the judiciary. She currently serves as the Chair of the California State Bar Council on Access and Fairness.

A native of California she is a product of Oakland public schools and a graduate of Golden Gate University School of Law. Most recently, District Attorney Becton earned a Master of Theological Studies at Pacific School of Religion (2015).

District Attorney Becton serves as a frequent lecturer and panelist, and she continues to participate in many community outreach activities. She convened "Clean Slate Day" helping individuals to clean up their criminal records. In 2015, District Attorney Becton served as Co-Chair of the "Know Your Rights" Youth Symposium for West Contra Costa County, as part of a national dialogue to educate youth in our communities, and to open the lines of communication between youth and law enforcement. She serves on the Advisory Board of the Law Academy at De Anza High School in Richmond, California, and she convenes "Get Your House in Order," a program that assists elders and seniors. District Attorney Becton has two adult sons.
